

Benchmarking:

Benchmark is the process of comparing the fundamental ratios against a company's peers within the same industry.

When you are evaluating a company's ratios to its peers in the same industry you are looking for the company that offers you the best metrics for each dollar paid. You are comparing a group of symbols to find the one that is most undervalued.
