

Fiscal Policy:

This is the power of the government to raise/reduce taxes.

Higher taxes -> less money in circulation

Lower taxes -> more money in circulation, more spending

Taxes are used by government to pay everything. When they don't raise enough money through taxes they go into deficit by selling loans (bonds) in the market.
